Meetings at The Pier

The Lounge in the Angel building makes a great venue for meetings. We can arrange various activities, should you wish to break from your business for a spot of 'team building'. A couple of ideas, why not try a quick trip over to France on a 60 mph, 225 HP rib, or to the other extreme, a gentle sail on an Essex fishing smack (under sail). Delegates staying overnight at The Pier have dinner in the Harbourside Restaurant before retiring to one of our stunning bedrooms.

The Gallery is available to hire for lunch and afternoon meetings, Monday to Saturday inclusive.

The Angel Sitting Room is available in the evenings for up to 60 guests for an informal buffet with bar facilities and soft background music, but sadly no dancing.

Meetings at Maison Talbooth

The Garden Room was a welcome addition to Maison Talbooth during the re-investment programme in 2007/8 and somehow seems to balance out this imposing house.

Light and airy with a high vaulted roof and huge windows, the Garden Room has far reaching views over the Dedham Vale towards Stratford St Mary and Dedham; you are really in the heart of 'Constable Country' with the same landscape that inspired the artist John Constable in the 1700's.

The room has a variety of uses from breakfast room for residents, light lunches for hotel guests and treatment room visitors to the perfect dining experience for House Party guests. It can even be used for dancing when the hotel is taken over for exclusive use. Already within one month of opening, the Garden Room has been used for an evening wedding reception with a barbeque cooked by the hotels' chefs Rachael and Jo, a wedding eve celebration for the bride and her family and friends and several House Parties.

The Garden Room has a light lunch menu and you are welcome to call in anytime – but it's always best to phone the Maison first to check availability,
